Foreword

As we leave high school, we enter a world of tremendous challenges. No longer can we be permitted to escape under the guise of childhood, the almost overpowering problems which arise to confront man. We must put petty grievances behind us and learn to stand shoulder to shoulder with others who are facing the danger which now threatens our generation.

History of the Somerville High School

How strange the first day of school eighty-three years ago would seem to us! At that time, sixty-three pupils were admitted to the school in comparison to the more than 2600 who now enter our high school daily.

On May 3, 1852, two teachers conducted the first session in Somerville Free High School. The headmaster then was Robert Bickford. His excellent record has been upheld by such men as Leonard Walker, Samuel Pike, Isaac Beals, Henry Babcock, George Baxter, Charles Whitcomb, John Avery, Harry Sears, and of course, our present headmaster, Albert Giroux.

Having outgrown its first building, in 1872, the school moved into the building later known as the Somerville Latin School. Because enrollment continued to increase rapidly, the Somerville English High School was built in 1895. When Mr. Baxter resigned, the two schools were united making one Somerville High School.

In 1912 the enrollment increased to approximately 2,000, and three years later Junior High Schools were built. Then the Senior High School was changed to a three year school.

A plan was adopted in 1927 for the enlargement and improvement of the school and for the addition of a gym. This work was completed in 1930 at an expenditure of $1,000,000.

Since then our school has strived to maintain its high standard of "Honor and Progress." May it continue to do so in the future and hold the honored place it has attained.

Yearbook Staff

Glossies, write-ups, data cards, quotes — all these are only a few of many things that help to make the tasks of a Yearbook Staff member a confusing but happy job. Not one of the staff members will ever forget the adventures he has experienced in the land of journalism during the last year.

Each member has learned how to cooperate with others in order to achieve the best possible results. This lesson is, in itself, invaluable.

All the honors that could possibly be due an editor are showered on John Russell, whose leadership, patience, kindness, and thoughtfulness knit the group in the friendship and harmony needed to publish a first-rate yearbook successfully.

May reading this book now and re-reading it in the years to come, give you as much pleasure and as many happy hours as the Yearbook Staff has had in compiling it for you.

Editorial

Dear Classmates:

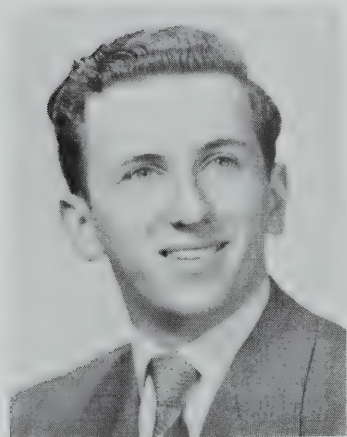

The day on which we must all leave S. H. S. has finally arrived — graduation is here. Even during the last days of our high school career, we may have joked about wanting to finish school. But now, almost everyone cannot help but feel a slight pang of melancholy at parting from the intimate and cherished friends of high school days. It is our most sincere hope that the 1951 Yearbook will help you to remember fondly your friendships at S. H. S.

Since Class Day, 1950, when the first candid photos were taken, work on our Yearbook has progressed steadily. Before school closed last June, many important problems had to be discussed and resolved — the general atmosphere of the book, the type of Senior layout and any possible deviation from past form — to mention only a few. Since September, a round of collecting and filing data, identifying and pasting glossies, checking names in organization groups, and proof-reading has kept the Yearbook Staff humming with activity and anticipation.

Our class color — the gorgeous red that spurs us ahead — is unfortunately a rather difficult companion. Nevertheless, we have tried to use enough of it so that it is outstanding, yet not overpowering. The general plan of our Yearbook, with regard to layout, is quite similar to that of 1949, with the addition of a new type of content page, a greater division of the activity section, and more consistent group picture size.

Here is the story of your high school life — a post-graduate course to which you will subscribe again and again over the years. Of course we will feel tremendously proud and pleased to see your smiles on Class Day as you see candid and formal pictures of your friends, but if, in ten or fifteen years, we might see the fond tear or hear the sly chuckle as you gaze at this record of your younger days, we would feel more than amply rewarded for the effort we may have expended on your record — the Yearbook of the Class of 1951.

Sincerely,
JOHN RUSSELL

Senior Class History

In 1948 we were apprehensive sophomores, frightened by that sprawling, red brick building that loomed so cold and friendless on the hill. Our fears were somewhat calmed when we learned that many previous sophomore classes experienced this same feeling. We were told that gradually we would become accustomed to our new center of activity.

Probably the first big step from our shell of timidity was the election of the Sophomore Executive Committee. Our representatives were Anthony Nasson, Mary Karageorges, William Walsh and Ida Brigida.

In the fall we returned to the hill as juniors. Now the Seniors were not so aloof and we laughed at the frightened tenth graders. Were we ever so young looking?

We were now more important factors of our group. We took part in many of the school organizations and many of our members began to assume leadership in various fields. We had our favorite football player, our class singer, and a Mr. Basketball.

Far more important than these things, however, was the fact that we were making new friends, friends we saw only on the hill.

This Junior year was one of accomplishments. The basketball team again won the coveted Tech Tourney crown and some of our members were elected to the National Honor Society.

Then came the Junior Prom. The committee composed of Chairman Frank Henry, Florence Williamson, Ida Brigida, William Walsh and Dixie Walker were responsible for a memorable night.

Earlier in the year we had elected for our Junior Class Officers: President, Anthony Nasson; Vice-President, Mary Karageorges; Treasurer, Thomas Robertson; and Secretary, Joan Daley.

September 1950 and the Senior year pounced upon us from out of nowhere. The suddenness left us no time in which to reflect. We were caught in an entirely new world. We had more decisions to make both individually and as a class. We had more functions to attend, we needed more money and we had more friendships to cultivate. For some the senior year dragged tediously; for others it moved at breakneck speed.

As always, the realization dawned that graduation would end the trudge to the hill, would end all sports participation, and would end the many friendships that we had made during our three year visit at Somerville High. All these thoughts came too late. If only we had it to do over . . . . .

This year we elected for our Senior Class Officers, President - Anthony Nasson; Vice-President, Mary Karageorges; Treasurer, Thomas Robertson; and Secretary, Joan Daley.

Our excellent basketball team just missed capturing another Tech Tourney title. We were proud to say that they were our representatives in the tourney.

The Scholarship Play, "Angel of Red Canyon", proved to be one of the most outstanding events of the school year.

In May we elected a Senior Night Committee with Chairman Michael Tarantino, Joan Billings, Ida Brigida, John Heneghan, and Gunnel Thorell. This group prepared for our big night.

For the prom the gym was decorated in a modernistic penthouse design. Soft lights, good music, and handsome couples spelled a very successful evening.

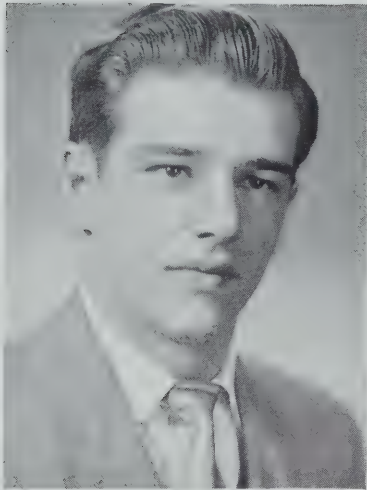

Another committee had the task of planning our last day at Somerville High. This committee consisted of Chairman Frank Henry, Rita Ryan, Eunice Calesa, James Jensen and William Walsh.

Now we have graduated. Three years have passed. Years of happy moments that passed too quickly. Years replete with excitement, apprehension, happiness and friends. Years that have become part of us. Years which we know will never be forgotten.

Class Poem

Paul Weene, '51

Alma Mater, we stand before thee,
To face the coming days;
To conquer every trial,
To travel separate ways.

Honor is our watchword,
Progress is our goal;
Improvement is the motive
For enrichment of our soul.

Our life unfolds before us,
But we are well prepared,
Because of your sage guidance
And experiences shared.

The doors of time, now open,
Will close on days of yore;
But memories will linger
In our hearts forevermore.

Class Ode

Ruth Bezirdjian, '51

Farewell, Oh Alma Mater, we bid thee fond Adieu,
Our hearts are filled with sorrow as we leave the Red and Blue.
Thy motto, Honor, Progress, has been our guiding light,
Thy teachings have prepared us for the path of truth and right.

Three happy years have quickly passed, and left but one regret,
That we must end our years of joy and part with friends we've met.
The future stands before us, with challenges unknown,
But we, with faith that you have taught, will meet it in our own.

We owe a debt of gratitude, which we would gladly pay,
And, as we leave your portals, in retrospect we say,
"We're loyal to the school we've known, where we have had much fun,
In parting we salute you, WE, the CLASS OF FIFTY-ONE."

Joan Billings, Ida Brigida, John Heneghan, Gunnel Thorell, Michael Tarantino

Senior Night Committee

For three long years, every member of the Class of '51 has been looking forward to Senior Night, May 23, 1951. All this anticipation found realization in one of the most successful Senior Proms ever to be held at S. H. S. Although the night is past, it will ever be remembered, for it has earned first place in the thoughts of every senior.

Thanks to the Art Department, the decorations of pent-houses and plants were festively alive in the class colors of crimson and white. Dreamy music, so essential, was amply provided by the popular Freddy Sateriale and his orchestra. The King and Queen led the traditional grand march and the delightful favors were a joy to all.

Many thanks for the gala and long to be remembered affair go to the Senior Night Committee, headed by Michael Tarantino, assisted by John Heneghan, Ida Brigida, Joan Billings, and Gunnel Thorell.

June 1! Class Day! A day that some seniors will remember chiefly as the last day of secondary school; others, as their last day at Somerville High, and others, as a wonderful climax to twelve enjoyable school years!

Early in the year, Eunice Calesa, Rita Ryan, Frank Henry, James Jensen and William Walsh, were chosen by the senior student body to serve as the Class Day Committee. They were given charge of the traditional exercises that end the Senior Year. The exercises included the recitation of the Class Poem by Paul Weene and the presentation of the Class Gift by Anthony Nasson. The Class Ode, with music and lyrics by Ruth Bezirdjian, was sung by the graduates.

The Seniors, each with a colorful red and white beanie, then marched out of familiar Clayton Ellis Hall to the campus where the ivy was planted, the spade was presented to the President of the Junior Class, and the class banner was received by the Class of '54.

After obtaining a few hurried autographs in their yearbooks, the graduates boarded buses and headed for their annual Class Day Cruise on Boston Harbor.

Undergraduates

On Class Day, 1950, these six representatives of the Junior High Schools received the class colors of 1953.

Junior Class History

Here we are! The centennial class of S. H. S. During the past two years we have accomplished many things. About one half of the class have established their names on the honor roll. Robert Brown represented S. H. S. on Good Government Day. Barbara Reid's dancing ability has enabled her to join the famed Rockettes for the summer. We were well represented in Webster, Portia, G. A. A., Student Council, the Glee Clubs and Symphony Guild. John Kalyanides' singing has made him very popular among his fellow students.

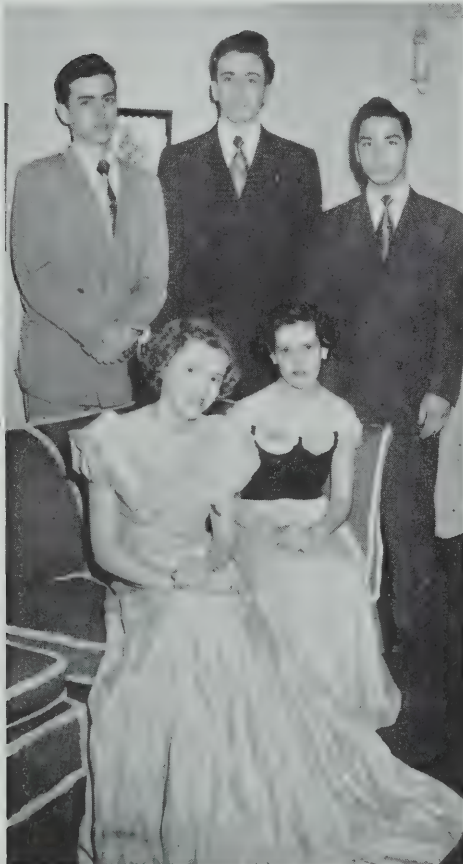

Dick Skeffington and Warren Cooper aided our team in basketball. Sharing the spotlight in football were Richard Baldacci, Dan Desmond, Ed Revis, and Bill Buchan. Dick Henshaw and Bob Brown displayed their athletic ability in baseball.

A successful prom resulted from the cooperation of our Junior Night Committee: Tony Porcaro, Nick Marinakis, Tony Kounelas, Esther Foster and Marjorie Whalen, and our Junior officers, Robert Brown, Dora Vigoroso, Audrey Peterson, and Richard Mangan.

We think that this year's Junior Class will uphold the high standards of previous classes and continue to be a credit to S. H. S.

Sophomore Class History

In September 1950, when the sophomores first entered S. H. S., they were greatly confused by the many classrooms. By practice they became well acquainted with the rules and regulations of S. H. S.

The sophomores on the football team were Lawrence Fennessey, Salvatore Albano, William Smithers, Paul Abrahamian, Salvatore Pino, and William Catalino. The hockey team had such outstanding sophomores as Edmund Poole, Anthony Cafferty, Jack De Celles, and Robert Chapman, while Gene Deady deserves great praise for being the only sophomore to make the first team in basketball.

The sophomores were well represented in the musical organizations. The trio of three sophomore girls credited for giving such a fine showing in the Musical Revue, on February 15, were Arlene Roberts, Anita Tagliamonte and Marilyn Cabral. Fred Johnson is also another promising entertainer in the Glee Clubs. The officers of the Sophomore Girls' Glee Club were: President Marilyn Cabral; Vice-President Norma DeFeo; Treasurer Florence Lionetti; and Secretary Betsy Stobo.

Shirley Ryan and Matthew Green were chosen to represent our class proctors on the Student Council.

Our girls were outstanding in athletics. The second basketball team made up mostly of sophomores was undefeated this year.

On January 5 the sophomore class elected Marie Wade, Joan Shea, Ralph DeGruttola, and Joseph Rosselli to the Sophomore Executive Committee.

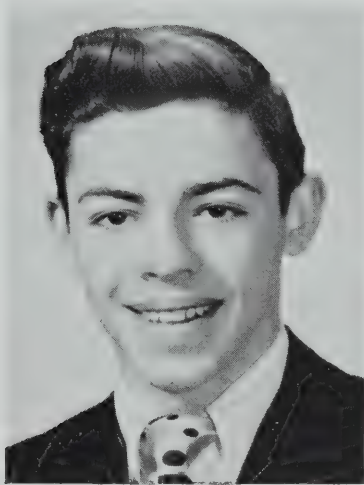

The Players' Club had two sophomores in the Scholarship Play, "Angel of Red Canyon." They were Lawrence Yore and Robert Sullivan.

We achieved the honor of having twenty-nine sophs on Maximum Credit and one hundred and sixty on Credit at the close of the second quarter.

National Honor Society

On June 7th, 1950, twenty-one students, selected from the Junior Class on a basis of service, loyalty, leadership, and scholarship, were received into the National Honor Society.

Thirty-two additional members were inducted on March 15, 1951, at one of the Society's traditional assemblies. The program was complete with selections from the members, and a guest speaker.

Although the social activities were limited in this honorary society, the members went on to plan a reception for the Junior members who were selected in May. Under the guidance of Dr. O'Loughlin, a program consisting of skits, entertainment, and refreshments was enjoyed.

NATIONAL HONOR PLEDGE

"I will be a loyal member of the National Honor Society in the Somerville High School, steadfast in my purpose to abide by the right, to serve all just causes, and to seek the truth with my whole heart.

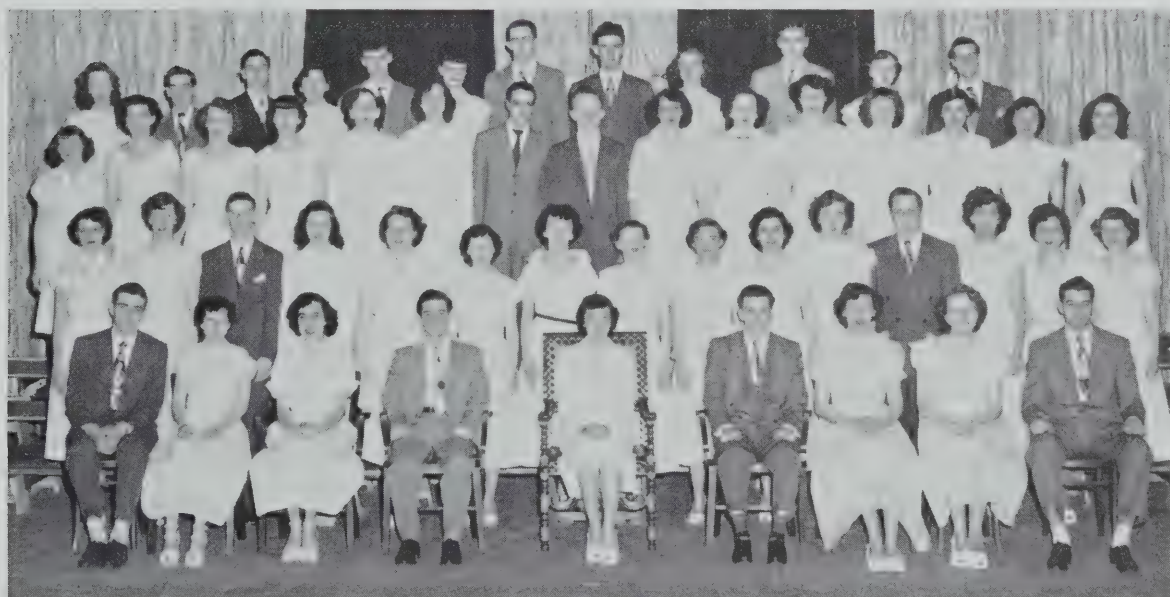

I would prize scholarship as a sacred trust and a noble character as my most valuable possession.

Beneath the banner of honor and progress I would loyally serve."

PRAYER

Father, we stand before Thee,
Hear us in this, our prayer,
Thou art the Great and Mighty,
Help us to do and dare.
Keep us from sin and scorning,
No evil thoughts can hover
Where Thou dost abide.

O God, keep us Thy children
Pure in deed and word,
All through our life we'll need Thee,
O Thou, our Shepherd.
We have our weaknesses,
But if at last we conquer,
We pray Thou'lt say, "Well done."

Student Council

Chalk up another successful year for the Student Council! Representatives from the various organizations in the school and the elected proctors and class officers of the Senior, Junior and Sophomore classes, acted as a clearing house for student problems.

Officers were: President, Anthony Nasson; Vice-President, Thomas Robertson; Second Vice-President, Robert Brown; Secretary, Mary Karageorges; and Treasurer, Frank Henry, all of whom did their best to provide excellent leadership and uphold traditions, under the guidance of faculty adviser, Miss Dorothy Rice.

The Council did an admirable job in conducting its fall dance, in directing the Jimmy Fund, Tuberculosis, Red Feather, Cancer, March of Dimes and Heart drives, and in running the Lost and Found Department.

If the work of a Radiator Reporter were to be described in as few words as possible, it would probably be stated as follows: to recount in the most interesting manner possible, the common, everyday happenings in his homeroom. The reporter's work is important and must be done with care for the pages of "Class Chatter." Each of the reporters must be on his toes continually and be able to discern what news would most appeal to the rest of the school.

There has always been a fine group of reporters, but this year they have been outstanding. They have shown this in their work, both selling subscriptions and writing news. Patience is a virtue common to them all and the staff thanks them for a job well done.

A determined editor, a competent faculty adviser, and a friendly and hard-working staff are the three mainstays of a good school magazine. The monthly Radiator of S. H. S. was fortunate this year in having all three of these.

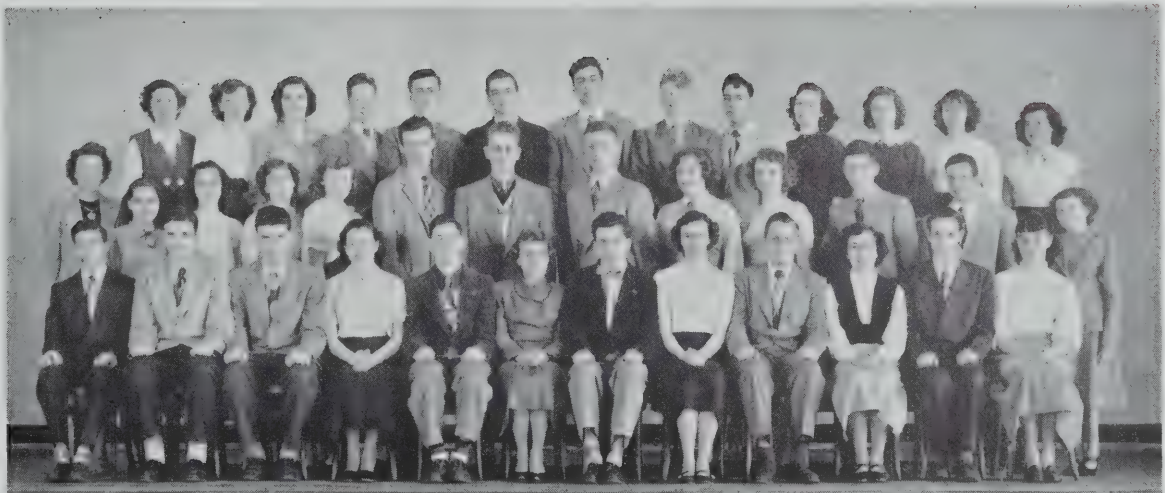

John Russell, editor-in-chief, deserves much credit for all the time and work he has put into the magazine. Devoting every minute he possibly could to Radiator work, John has succeeded in editing a top notch magazine. Neither is the work of Claire Pirani, associate editor, to be passed over lightly.

The staff commends Miss Olive MacPherson, faculty adviser, for her splendid management of a school activity that demands much time and patience. She has developed the staff into a fine unit which refuses to lower the quality of The Radiator.

Thomas Ludwig, business manager, has worked side by side with Mr. Colbert, business adviser.

For the sixth consecutive year, The Radiator won first rating at the national conference of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Radiator Staff

1—Angelo Rossetti, Kenneth Costa, Thomas Pantazelos, Elsa Battista, Paul Weene, Claire Pirani, John Russell, Jean Corkum, Richard Park, Sylvia Patalano, Peter Mercauto, Sandra Sheehan.

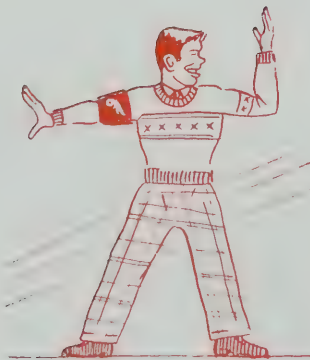

2—Miss MacPherson, Marie Forte, Virginia Humber, Anna Solano, Beverly MacNeill, Thomas Robertson, Norman Brown, John Noonan, Phyllis Park, Gertrude Lynch, Richard Higham, Allen Dickerman, Margaret Hewey.

 2—Paul Costantino, Edward Falvey, Paul Sicard, David Whynot, Robert Miraglia, Gilbert Mosher, Arthur Cafarella, Edward Coughlin, Edward Voutour, Mrs. McDonnell.
 3—Giacomo Rizzo, Paul Hughes, Vincent Ciano, Michael Riordan, John MacLeod, Robert Sullivan, Robert Willwerth, Russell Knibbs, Richard Aucoin.

Traffic Squad

Following a plan inaugurated several years ago, the Traffic Squad continued its work this year under Mrs. McDonnell's capable direction. Under this system, the Traffic Squad has been functioning on a basis similar to that of an actual police organization.

Chief Richard Bryant; Assistant Chief Arthur Giangrande; and four Commanders, Arthur Cafarella, Charles Beede, Robert Luca, and Ralph Verity, were assisted by numerous Captains and Privates.

By using this plan, the Traffic Squad kept the filing running smoothly. Not only did the Traffic Squad function during school hours, but also assisted at the basketball games, football games, the Scholarship Play and at the Music Department's concerts where the members acted as ushers.

If you had been in room 400 any Wednesday during Special Period, you would have seen an overwhelming amount of activity, as a meeting of the Art Club began. There was always much doing, whether guest speakers, discussion of the finer things in life — art to them, — or making the ever delightful decorations for both the Senior and Junior Proms. The Art Club decorations for the Senior Prom converted the home of athletics into a ballroom of splendor and sophistication with its penthouse motif. Theresa Di Sarcina, Chairman of the Senior Prom Decorations Committee, headed a crew of hard workers.

Under the direction of Miss Hazel Smith and Miss Mary O'Keefe, the Art Club held a gala Barn Dance in the fall and a delightful Valentine Dance at the Hotel Woodbridge.

The officers of the Art Club were: President, Richard Davis; Vice-President, Theresa DiSarcina; Secretary, Priscilla Hayward; Treasurer, Arthur Rose, and Student Council Representative, Seta Nalbandian.

The Art Club deserves praise for its fine support in helping to advertise the various school activities.

 3—Albert Woodman, Lorraine Rhynold, Eleanor Wipperman, Margaret Rockwood, Janice Crimmings, Joseph Murray, Walter Jackson, Harvey Thomas, Carol Noonan, Patricia Bowen, Joanne Barufaldi, Joseph Rosselli.

Portia and Webster

The purpose of these debating societies is to build strong character and to develop in the individual the art of public speaking which in turn promotes poise and confidence.

This year, Portia with the supervision of Miss Frances Calia and the leadership of its officers, Lorraine Schwalb, Eunice Calesa, Anita DiNitto, Joan Daley, and Roseanna Moscaritola held many inter-club debates and discussions.

Portia held its annual dance at which Rosemary Amaral was chosen Miss Portia.

Webster, under the direction of Mr. Hickey and officers Joseph Murray, Walter Jackson, Albert Woodman and Harvey Thomas held informal debates on current problems.

The two clubs combined to send Anita DiNitto, Mary Drougas, Joseph Murray, and Walter Jackson to the Tournament Debate at Waltham in April. They were outstanding in this debate and showed their fine training and innate ability.

The Junior Red Cross council officers for 1950-1951 were Janet Fuoca, president; Lorraine Norton, vice-president; Virginia Humber, Student Council representative and secretary.

The Junior Red Cross membership drive was held in November. Part of the money was used for materials purchased in Somerville to make gay favors and toys in the schools for the Children's and Veterans' hospitals. Janet Fuoca and Virginia Humber have worked at Boston Red Cross headquarters where they were trained as leaders. Virginia worked at the Blood center last summer. Other students did secretarial work and courier work for headquarters. In May a group from the high school went to the leaders' camp in Sharon.

Various clubs and departments contributed time and material to Red Cross activities.

For next year there are some new plans. Miss Katharyn McCann, our high school sponsor, will start them in the Fall.

Bank Treasurers

The Room Bank Treasurers occupy a most important place in our School Savings System, since they are the link between the depositors and the bank. Because of the work they must do in their respective rooms on every Bank Day, they are held in high esteem for their integrity and accuracy. Due to their diligent work, the 1950-51 banking year has been very successful.

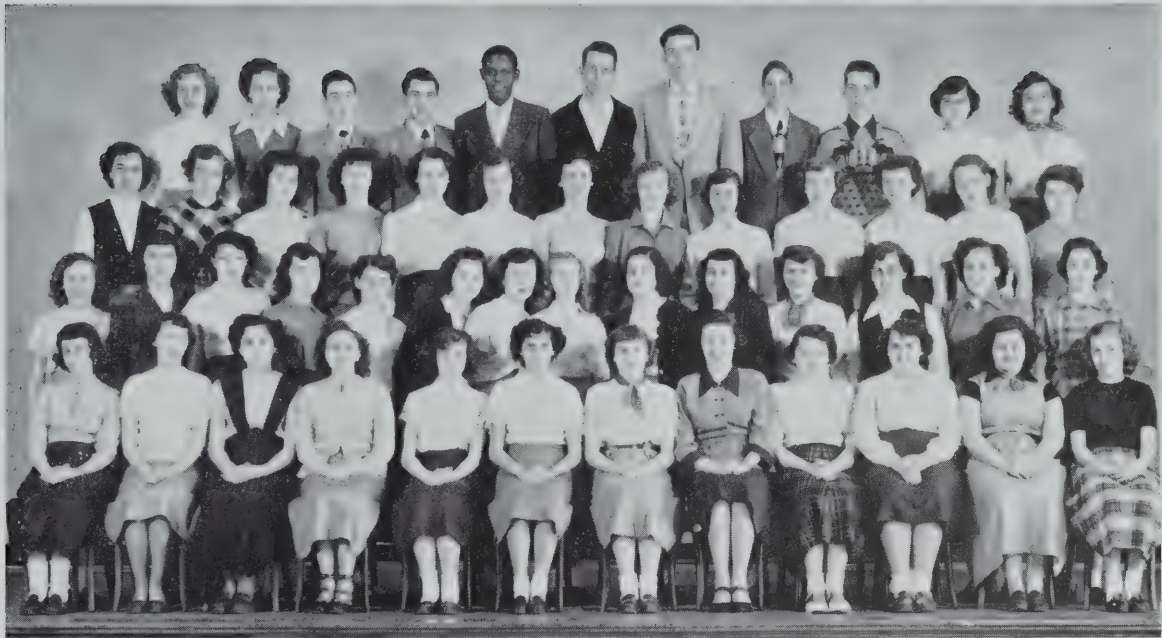

As the success of any activity depends in the last analysis on the co-operation of all who are in any way connected with it, we can be proud of the success achieved in banking because it represents the well co-ordinated team work of Room Treasurer, Bank Corps and depositors. In addition, we recognize the help of the teachers of the school, whose interest in thrift has aided in so many ways to make banking a significant factor in the Somerville High School.

Our Room Treasurers have served us well this past year and we are grateful to them.

"With proper co-operation on all fronts, we cannot fail in our great task."

Bank Corps

The many thousands of accounts which were active during the past year in the School Savings System of Somerville, provided the members of the Bank Corps with a full volume of work. Since the clerical work connected with the deposits made in the School Bank in all the schools of the city is concentrated in the High School Bank, the Bank Corps has an exceptional opportunity to gain experience in practical work and give service at the same time.

The members of the Bank Corps, carefully chosen for their qualifications to engage in this important work, gave an excellent accounting of themselves by their efficient work in handling all the details. An idea of the magnitude of the work can be gained from the fact that, since the opening of the School Bank last year under our new system, 10,264 accounts have been opened throughout the city.

A sense of honor, as well as of pride in careful and accurate work, has characterized the Bank Corps.

With the help of faculty librarian Mr. Richard Obear, the twenty-two library assistants, consisting of eleven Sophomores, ten Juniors and one Senior, performed their tasks for the improvement of the library. These jobs included filing catalog cards, preparing new books for circulation, dating circulation cards, making out and delivering overdue book notices, and keeping circulation and attendance records. Their efficiency and willingness to cooperate made their help more pleasant and doubly useful.

When pupils discovered that the library was an excellent and a useful place in which to look up material for research and projects, the library became a popular place in which to spend study periods. Anyone needing help received it from willing hands.

Many of these pupils will probably go on to careers as librarians. The experience gained as a library assistant offers valuable training to the librarians of the future.

Proctors

As the school year gets off to a roaring start, one of the first and most important duties of a student is to elect his class proctor. A typical proctor is trustworthy, dependable, and ambitious, for it is these qualities that give us confidence in knowing that activities of the room are being properly taken care of. It is the proctor's duty to help at the election of class officers, to distribute and collect various ballots, collect class dues and take charge of the numerous drives and collections held throughout the school year. Among these drives are: the March of Dimes, Red Feather, the Heart Fund, and the Cerebral Palsy Drive.

The class depends on him to keep them posted on all the school activities and the ideas of the Student Council. The proctors this year were very capably represented on the Student Council by Mary Nicholas, Rita Ryan and St. Clair Phillips.

The purpose of Cercle Le Clerc, Somerville High's French Club, is to acquaint French students with France, her people and customs in an informal and enjoyable manner.

One of the first steps toward establishing the club was securing Miss Viola Jackson's dusty book closet, Room 107 c, and converting it into a small but attractive meeting room where French students could spend a free period reading fashionable magazines from Paris, or listening to French records. Both improve the pupil's usage of the language.

Highlighting the events of the year were guest speakers and well informed travellers who told the club delightful stories of France.

Now for a very brief French lesson. Cercle is the French word for club and Le Clerc is the name of the heroic World War II French underground leader. From these we get Cercle Le Clerc or the club of Le Clerc.

Au revoir and bonne chance!

Annual Harriet M. Bell Scholarship Play

Upper left: "Cut that out. I love it!"

Upper right: "I ain't supposed to do this y'know."

Lower: "Where's the angel?"

"All the world's a stage"—A laughing happy group of "players" learn the how's and what's of "fretting their hour on this stage" as members of the lively and popular "Players' Club."

Not only do these members get satisfaction in acting but also in the knowledge that they are helping to further the education of worthy students by the Harriet M. Bell Scholarships awarded each year to Seniors.

This year's Scholarship Play was a light comedy, "The Angel of Red Canyon." Congratulations to seniors Evelyn Gilbert, Sandra Sheehan, Marilyn Burt, Jean Corkum, Thelma Loven, Joseph Murray, and the Ladies of Red Canyon for their excellent performances.

The club as a group attended several plays and movies and had much fun in their "beanie" project.

Officers: President, Evelyn Gilbert; Vice-President, Jean Corkum; Corresponding Secretary, Marilyn Burt, and Treasurer, Paul Coughlin; Faculty Adviser, Mrs. McDonnell.

Camera Club

Somerville High's "Shutterbug Society" has developed nicely this year and is clicking in fine focus.

The members have aided teachers and classes by operating the projector for visual education and have taken photographs of various classes. Many have used the club's Speed Graphic camera to take flash pictures of sporting events and some have processed films and made both contact and projection prints.

A series of slide lectures was begun for instruction in correct printing techniques, color, black and white photography and other similar processes.

The Camera Club took publicity pictures for the May school exhibit and held an excellent salon exhibit of pupils' work.

The club, with the generous help of Mr. DeAngelis, aided the seniors greatly by making wallet-size prints of graduation pictures which will always keep the memory of the friendships of our high school days fresh.

Under the directorship of Mr. Grady, the girls of the Drum and Bugle Corps had another fine year of music and marching. Through practice, the girls had a great deal of enjoyment, as well as musical experience. Although many seniors will be missed from the group, there are enthusiastic juniors and sophomores to carry on next year.

Somerville Leads the Way

Words and Music by
EDWARD BODGE '37

March tempo

Wave high your gild-ed ban-ners For

Som-er - ville leads the way! Our boys will fight for vic - try

For Som-er - ville leads the way. We have the gor - geous red. To spur us a - head! Fair play in all that we do, Is like the true-ness of the blue We'll fight with all our might For this is the day We'll all say Som-er - ville leads the way.

Band

This year, as in the past, the band played at football and basketball games and really helped to spur our boys to victory. Because we take the band for granted at these affairs, we do not realize what a great morale builder it is.

When Mr. Clark and the student leader, Robert LaHait, combined experience with ambition, the result was an outstanding concert in S. H. S. band history. Excerpts from "Kiss Me, Kate", "Malaguena", and a new march, "National Capitol", were just a few of the pieces on the annual band concert program on May 19.

Before our senior Band members move on, we should tip our hats to a few of those whose talents helped us musically on our way through high school — Ann Ferrarini, Marilyn Burt, Mary Emberly, George Andersen, Frank De-Felice, Albert Bruno, Richard Park, and Robert LaHeit.

Boys' Glee Club

This year, meeting weekly during Friday special period, the Boys' Glee Club has been most successful, under the direction of Miss Mary McGann.

The club elects its own officers, — this year the President was Joseph McPherson; Vice-President, Charles Buckley; Treasurer, Walter Martin; Secretary, Anthony Nasson; the two able pianists were Arnold Repucci and Frederick Johnson. Several boys of the club formed a Boys' Choir, which met on Wednesdays. There the more difficult Glee Club music was studied. The members of the club appeared in concerts, both as soloists and as a group in Talent Night, the Christmas Concert, and in the Musical Revue, sponsored by the Girls' Glee Club, and presented their own concert on April 5th, in the High School Auditorium. Many members will take part in the Graduation Chorus.

"We're going to have a small Glee Club this year. Not more than a hundred members at the most." So said Miss Sweet last fall. A few months later, in plans for the annual concert in February, the Glee Club boasted almost two hundred members, the largest ever.

In November the club sponsored a successful annual Thanksgiving Dance. The final activity of the year was a concert and reception for the parents of the Girls' Glee Club members. A chance to meet in the music room, informally, appealed to both parents and pupils.

Officers: Mary Karageorges, president; Thelma Loven, vice-president; Virginia Kaloyanides, secretary; Martha Massey, treasurer; the overworked and imposed-upon librarians, Carol Blair and Nancy Burnett; Miss Beatrice Sweet, faculty director.

Symphony Guild has had a very active year, thanks to its Faculty Adviser, Miss Sweet; President, Thelma Loven; Vice-President, John Kaloyanides; Secretary, Barbara Freeman; and Treasurer, Russell Knibbs. Its first activity was a Halloween party held in Barbara Freeman's barn; its second, a Christmas party at the Hotel Woodbridge for alumni as well as present members. Symphony Guild also sponsored an opera party to Verdi's "La Traviata" at the Boston Opera House in April.

The Annual Symphony Guild "Pops" night at Symphony Hall was on May 29, with 150 students and faculty attending.

The Symphony Guild meetings were held every other Monday during special period. After each business meeting, there was a program by members of the club. Sometimes the members themselves performed and sometimes they played records or gave talks on some famous figure or event in music. The members of this club had a most enjoyable year which greatly enriched their musical and social experience.

This selective group numbering one hundred and ten voices, was culled from the outstanding members of the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs. The Somerville High Glee Club is under the direction of Mr. Paul Kelly, Director of Music, assisted by Miss Mary McGann. The Club met twice a week. Each member received one point credit. The Somerville High Glee Club sang at the Christmas Concert and at Graduation.

Entertainment Group

The Entertainment Group, comprised of boys and girls selected by Miss Sweet from a list of volunteers, met every other Monday during special period to rehearse programs. This unit gave much of its time performing at hospitals, the City Home, churches and clubs. All money earned was donated to the Music Scholarship Fund.

This group is one of the busiest. The many compliments it received and the growing demands for its performances prove the sincerity of its efforts.

They sang at Talent Night, assisted at the Girls' Glee Club Concert and at the Memorial Day Assembly, and sang for various groups in the Music Room. They entertained their parents Monday, May 2, at a reception and concert. Each member gave loyal and unstinted service in keeping the performances always at a high standard.

Sports

Duck the Puck!

Someone has to keep the bench warm

On January 2, 1951, eyes all over New England were centered on the opening of the Somerville High School basketball season. The team would be operating without Ronald Perry and John Nunziato but this loss would be compensated by the added height. It was accepted that ours was the tallest and fastest team in Massachusetts. During the season in the Greater Boston League, Captain Gil Rice led his team to thirteen wins and only one defeat, this at the hands of Quincy. At the close of the season we were tied with Quincy for the league lead and as a result shared the Greater Boston League Championship, thus automatically receiving an invitation to the Tech Tournament. In the final game of the tourney we were defeated by Quincy by two points. This brought to a close a very successful season with 19 wins and only two losses, both at the hands of our league rivals, Quincy.

Basketball

 2—Coach James Sullivan, Loring Maxwell, Donald Landers, Dan Desmond, Richard Henshaw, Warren Cooper, Robert Fasciano, Joseph Osborn.

1—Dick Skeffington, Tony Vigliotti, Don Finnegan, Bob Eriksen, Co. Capt. Mike Tarantino, Co. Capt. George Drinkwater, Carl Scozzaro, Jim Papaluca, Charles Tsoukalis, Gil Rice.
 2—Coach Zammarchi, Peter Lucas, Frank Henry, J. DeVincintis, Art Gianetti, Art Vancini, Ed Reavis, George Kelley, Paul Abrahamian, Costa Evos, Elio Battista, Bill Buchan, Asst. Coach J. Simpson.

Football

The roaming Somerville High eleven completed a fairly successful season under the able coaching of Frank Zammarchi and his assistants — Alexander Austin and John Simpson.

Led by Co-Captains Mike Tarantino and George Drinkwater, the team defeated their arch rival, Medford, for the third consecutive year.

Although the team may not have fared too well in the scoring department, it was a group of hard fighting ball players. Tarantino and Drinkwater were probably the finest linemen ever to wear the red and blue. Don Finnegan looked as good at quarterback as he did at halfback. Jim Papaluca's educated toe, and Bob Eriksen's running ability greatly helped the cause.

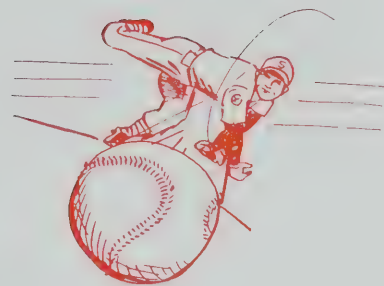

Many stars will be graduating this year but there is still promising material waiting for the '52 opening kick-off.

At the present time our baseball team is finishing a most successful season. Last summer the Somerville American Legion Junior baseball team was able to rise against stiff competition to the semi-finals of the Eastern United States Tournament. All of the players who were on this team are currently playing for S. H. S.

Somerville has always been known as a baseball loving city, and this year's team was a typical fighting Red and Blue group. Without a doubt they will defend their crown in the Eastern Massachusetts Tournament in June at Fenway Park. Coach Barney Curtin and Captain Fred Talbot are the leaders of the Somerville nine, while Dan Severino is the star pitcher. Don Finnegan, our football quarterback, received wide acclaim as the smallest and best catcher in the state last year. Since he has returned this year Don has improved considerably and now ranks with the best in New England.

With such outstanding talent it seems that our boys are again on the way to the Greater Boston League Championship.

Baseball

 3—Robert Martin, Harry McCrensky, Joe DeVincentis, Costa Evos, Richard Henshaw, William Lyver, Richard Penezic, Charles Allen, Ralph DeGruttola.

Cross Country

1—Bill McCarthy, Lenny Bartolucci, Tim Sullivan.
2—Arnie Lett, Joe Quinn.

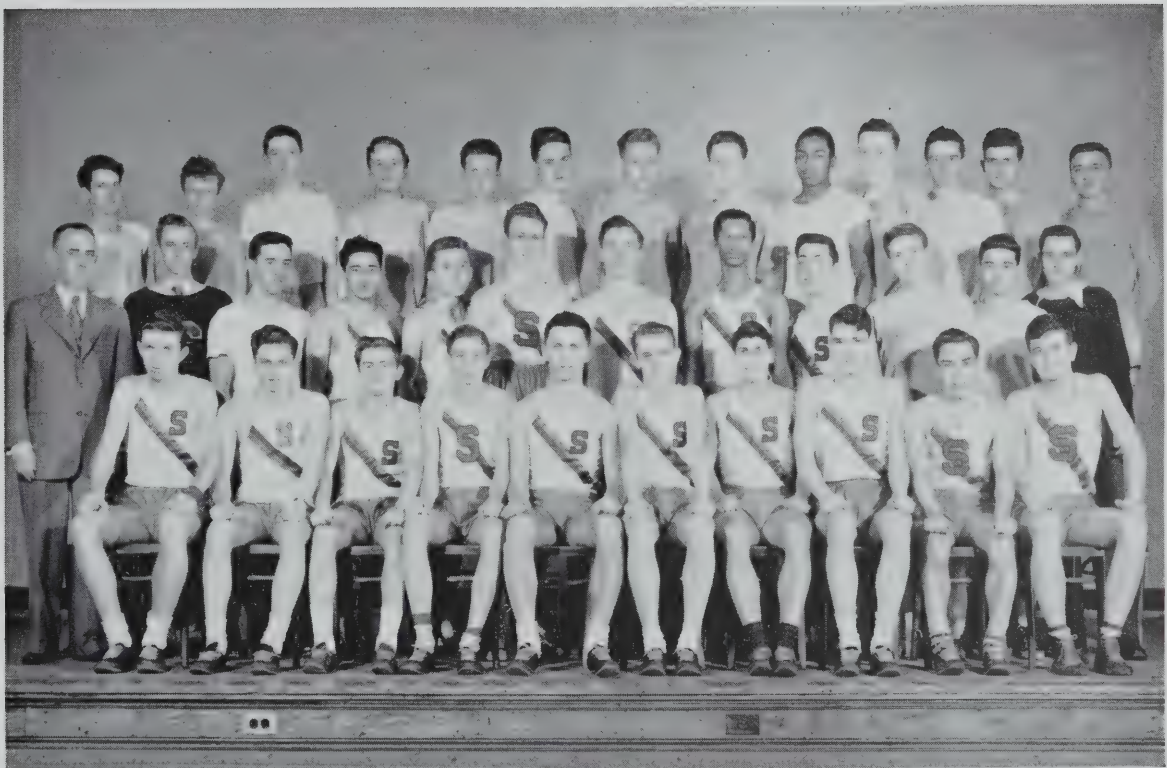

On your mark! Get set! Our track team has had a season of "sport for sport's sake." The team participated in the Metropolitan Track League at the East Newton Street Armory in Boston and in three large meets in the Boston Garden: the Northeastern, State, and Greater Boston Interscholastic Meets. In the Greater Boston Meet, Captain Jim Connors led the squad to second place in the Senior Division, first in the Sophomore-Freshman, and third in the final standing.

The track team must overcome two difficulties which would discourage a less hardy group of boys. The first is the competition of two other major sports, and the second is having no home field on which to hold meets of its own.

Track

1—John O'Brien, Arthur Roch, Arnold Lett, William McCarthy, Captain James Connors, Allan Walker, John Pistone, William Riordan, Ralph Steeves, Tim Sullivan.

Hockey

How fast can a skater skate? Plenty fast if he is a S. H. S. puckster. The Somerville High sextet, under the able tutoring of Coach Lanigan, ended a whirlwind season in the Eastern Massachusetts Hockey League, with three wins, three losses, and three ties, which for a high school hockey team is an above average record.

Leading the team was captain and high scorer Fred Talbot, who inspired the team to fight its way through the season against very strong opponents.

The Red and Blue was well represented on the Eastern Massachusetts All Star first team by Fred Talbot, and on the All Star record team by Dan Severino.

Other outstanding seniors on the team were Fran O'Meara, John Giatrelis, Kenneth Plumb, and Al Rushton.

Coach Lanigan can count on his returning members and incoming sophomores to build up an even better team for the future.

This year the sophomore and junior girls turned out in large numbers to try for a place in the cheering line. Only the best were chosen as was evidenced by their cheering at the games. After much practice, a completely new group was ready.

These girls were present at the football games in the autumn and at the Tech Tourney games in the spring, lending color and enthusiasm by their cheering. Their ability to cheer and their desire to improve by practice, shows great promise for a perfectly coordinated line next year. Their sponsor again this year was Miss Geraldine Fitzgerald.

The Tomahawk Cheer is still one of the most colorful cheers, and with the Team and Alphabet Cheers will always remain among the favorites.

G. A. A.

One of the oldest organizations in the school, the G. A. A., has turned out many outstanding players this year, such as Mary Emberley, Charlotte O'Brien, Dorothy Douglas, and Jeanne Lockhart.

Every year the girls of S. H. S. attend a G. A. A. assembly. At this time the members with enough credit receive their awards. The awards are the large "S", the small "s" and a pin. Credit is given to a girl for her attendance at meetings, practice, and for holding office.

The G. A. A. is not merely an athletic club, but also a social one. Here the girls are brought together in friendship and fun, forming steadfast companions, learning through teamwork and play the real meaning of sportsmanship.

The Officers for 1950-51 were: President, Mary Emberley; Vice-President, Doria Pizzotti, Secretary, Jeanne Lockhart; Treasurer, Dorothy Gibson; Student Council, Dorothy Douglas.

Girls' Basketball

This year as always the girls attended their practice in the gym regularly, sometimes playing until late in the afternoon. Time was unimportant for these girls who were working toward a goal. The work was not in vain, for our girls' basketball team attained a record as laudable as that of the boys.

The girls worked together smoothly as a team, indicating that they thoroughly appreciated the time and efforts of Miss Snell, Mrs. Boudreau, and Miss Cavotta, the faculty coaches.

The team went forward to win a number of its scheduled games. Outstanding individual style was displayed by both Mary Emberley and Jeanne Lockhart, both Seniors, while the rest of the team exhibited fine teamwork to give these girls every available opportunity for victory.
